

CELTIC KNOT ACCESSIBILITY ...ACCESSIBILITY INFORMATION...

We are working towards making our website fully W3C compliant.

For the text only version of our website, [click here].

To increase or decrease the size of text on this page, press the control key and use the scroll key on your mouse.

For detailed information on how to adjust your computer to facilitate accessibility, visit the “my computer my way” part of AbilityNet’s website. This has much useful information including:

- Help with Seeing the Screen
- Help with Using Your Keyboard and Mouse
- Help with Language and Reading

Our full accessibility statement sets out not only how we try to make our website accessible, but also how we try to be accessible in other ways.

We have not been independently audited against AbilityNet’s or any other comparable standard, but AbilityNet does publish its standard, and we have attempted a self-audit against the published standard, which is available on request.

Celtic Knot is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority ♦ Its social workers are registered with the General Social Care Council
